Virtual Meeting and Speaker at 9:30 AM

Topic: On-Track Safety

Presenter:
Noel Christensen, Northern Plain RR

Noel Christensen is the Manager of Training Services for the Northern Plains Railroad Company. His Railroad journey started in 1990 with the Soo Line Railroad at the yard in South Minneapolis with a spike maul in his hand. Noel spent 26 years with the Soo Line / Canadian Pacific Railway as the Technical Training Manager, Hazardous Material Instructor and Emergency Responder. Noel left the Canadian Pacific in 2014 to work for the Federal Railroad Administration as the Minnesota Hazardous Material Inspector. In 2020 he joined Northern Plains Railroad.

He has developed a Hazardous Material training program based on the Code of Federal Regulations to assist the hazardous material community with their operational and training demands. He has conducted thousands of classroom and hands-on tank car training seminars for the railroads and loading/unloading facilities across the USA and Canada. He has a BA from the University of Iowa along with a degree in adult education from the University of Alberta. When he is not out on the open road riding Harley Davidsons, you'll find him with Jody, the kids, grandkids and friends in Minneapolis.
